MONEY

Credit cards

Credit and debit cards can be used to withdraw money from ATMs as well as to pay for items over the counter. Mastercard and Visa are the most widely accepted cards in the country; other lesser known cards may not be accepted.

Exchanging money

You can change money at banks, bureau de change, hotel receptions, travel agents, petrol stations and large shopping centres.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

HEALTH

Make sure you have adequate travel health insurance and accessible funds to cover the cost of any medical treatment abroad and repatriation.

If you are referred to a medical facility for treatment you should contact your insurance/medical assistance company immediately.

European Health Insurance Cards (EHIC) can be used to cover the costs of treatment until you return to the UK. Although please note that the card is not an alternative to travel insurance. It will not cover any private medical healthcare or costs or lost or stolen property. Therefore, it is important to have both an EHIC and valid private travel insurance.

If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 112 and ask for an ambulance. If you are referred to a medical facility for treatment you should contact your insurance/medical assistance company immediately.

SAFETY

Ljubljana is generally considered to be a very safe city and crime rates are very low.

GETTING AROUND

From Ljubljana Airport

Taxi is the most popular method of transport to get to and from Ljubljana airport.

The airport is approximately a 25 minute taxi journey from the City centre and about 20 minutes to Stožice Stadium.

There is also a bus service that operates back and forth between the City centre and the airport.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Buses & Trains

Bus travel is the most convenient form of public transport for trips in and around Ljubljana's immediate surrounding areas.

The main train station in Ljubljana is relatively small, and is situated in the middle of the City. Train journeys are more suitable for those looking to travel around the country.

FOOD & DRINK

Slovenia is famous for its high quality of food with many options available particularly for meat lovers.

Unique Slovenian dishes are available, but you won't find them on every menu, so here are some to look out for:

- Kraški pršut - air-dried ham
- štruklji - dumplings stuffed with sweet fillings, meat or vegetables
- žlikrofi - potato dumplings similar to gnocchi
- jota - a type of soup made of beans, sauerkraut, potatoes, bacon, spare ribs, and the main seasoning is garlic

Beer (pivo) is the most popular tipple and the main brands are Laško and Union.

Tipping

Tipping is generally expected at sit-down restaurants, with 10% considered standard.

HISTORY

THE HISTORY

England 3 – 1 Slovenia

15 November 2014

Wembley Stadium

Attendance: 82,305

England (4-1-2-1-2) Joe Hart, Nathaniel Clyne, Kieran Gibbs, Jordan Henderson, Gary Cahill, Phil Jagielka, Jack Wilshere, Adam Lallana, Danny Welbeck, Wayne Rooney (c), Raheem Sterling

Slovenia (4-4-2): Samir Handanovic, Miso Brecko, Bostjan Cesar (c), Branko Ilic, Jasmin Kurtic, Valter Birsa, Milivoje Novakovic, Andraz Struna, Andraz Kirm, Kevin Kampl, Ales Mertelj

All the pre-match fanfare was around captain Wayne Rooney, who became the ninth and youngest player to reach 100 caps for England.

A couple of early opportunities came his way. First a long ball forward that he failed to control on the edge of the box, then a snap-shot from 20 yards, following Welbeck's knock-down, but that went too high.

The game was brought to life 12 minutes after the break when a dangerous in swinging Slovenian free-kick from the left was flicked on by Henderson, looping over the stretching arm of Joe Hart and under the bar.

HISTORY

It needed something special to get the Three Lions level, and up stepped the skipper to drag them back into the game almost instantly. Rooney tricked his way into the box and was tripped by Slovenia captain Bostjan Cesar. Penalty.

The Manchester United man tucked away his third spot-kick of the season, though Handanovic did get a touch, to restore parity and move within five of Charlton's record.

And it got better for England soon after when Danny Welbeck weighed in with two quick-fire goals to add to his impressive tally for his country.

First, Adam Lallana's low cross was saved by the feet of the Inter Milan keeper and the ball fell kindly to the Welbeck who directed back into the net, albeit a little untidily.

But his second goal highlighted just what had been missing in the first half. Playing a quick one-two with Sterling to remove the marking defender from his path, he slotted past Handanovic for fifth goal in four games.

England looked for more goals – Welbeck, in particular, was eager for another to seal a hat-trick, but the 3-1 victory was enough to send them into the winter in charge of Group E.
