TOGETHER FOR ENGLAND

MEMBER INFORMATION

RESPECT

The FA has consistently urged fans to follow England in a positive way and we will continue to work hard to try to ensure a safe and enjoyable atmosphere for all supporters.

We would like to thank all England Supporters Travel Club members who have taken the time to make contact to express their disappointment and dismay at what they witnessed at the Germany v England match in Dortmund. Furthermore, the assistance from members has proved to be invaluable throughout this process.

Travelling supporters are reminded that they are representing the England National Team and are ambassadors of the country. We encourage all those heading to the match to act in a respectful manner and to treat the opposition supporters, and the locals, with the same respect they would wish to be treated with at home and to act in such a way that will continue to enhance the image of English Supporters, the national side and the country.

Members are asked to abide by the highest standards of behaviour, and refrain from:

- Acts involving violence, intimidation, provocation, abuse or anti-social behaviour
- The use of language that is racist, homophobic, discriminatory, abusive or anti-social in any other way
- Behaviours contrary to standards of decency and respect towards the people, cultures, laws and property of the host nation

For the avoidance of doubt this is not a definitive list of expected behaviours.

Any member behaving in an unacceptable manner whilst away with England may be subject to:

- Removal from the stadium
- Suspension from the ESTC Membership
- Being reported to the police, which may lead to possible criminal proceedings or a Football Banning Order

If you witness any unacceptable behaviour or would like to report anything else, you can do so in confidence by emailing englandsupportersclub@thefa.com or by calling us on +44 7970 146 250.

The FA will always take reports made by supporters seriously and investigate them further. For more information, please refer to the Code of Conduct, section 2 of the England Supporters Travel Club terms and conditions, found here: England Supporters Travel Club

English football is valued around the world for its standards of passion and fair play. Members should enhance this reputation by showing respect for the game, the opposition players and fans.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Paris is one of the most visited cities in the world, pulling in over 18 million tourists every year.

Steeped in history, the city has many iconic tourist attractions such as the Eiffel Tower, the Champs-Élysées, the Louvre and the Cathédrale Notre Dame - which is free to enter for tourists. Paris is also renowned for its cafés, wine bars and vintage bistros. It is worth noting that many of the city's top restaurants have cheaper menus at lunch time, providing a good opportunity to try out some top quality local food.

Paris also has an abundance of great parks such as Parc des Buttes-Chaumont, which boasts waterfalls, temples and cliffs, or Jardin des Plantes, the city's botanical garden

BRITISH EMBASSY AND FCO INFORMATION

The British Consulate General is open to the public Monday to Friday, 9:30am to 12:30pm. Outside of these hours you can reach the Consular Emergency Service by calling the number below.

British Embassy Address: 16 rue d'Anjou 75008, Paris, France

Phone: +33 (0) 1 44 51 31 00

The number to call in case of an emergency whilst out in France is 112.

It is recommended that all those travelling to France should carry a form of photo ID on them at all times as, if requested by the police, you must be able to prove your identity when asked or within 4 hours at a police station. ID can be in the form of a passport, a photo driving licence or other documentation provided by a government body.

Concealing the face in public places in France is illegal.

This includes balaclavas, full veils or any other garment or mask that is used to conceal the face. Failure to comply with the ban is punishable by a maximum fine of €150. The law does not provide any exemption for tourists

'Know before you go' via the FCO website provides advice and tips to travelling football fans abroad. For more detailed information, consulate details and regular updates please check the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) Travel Advice at www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice/france.

MONEY AND HEALTHCARE IN PARIS

Currency Exchange: Exchange rates generally tend to be the same if exchanging at a bank or directly from an ATM machine. In Paris, you will be able to find numerous exchange bureaux in busy tourist areas and they are usually open on Sundays too, although it is likely they will charge a commission.

Banks: Banks are generally open from 09:00 to 17:00, or 6pm, from Monday to Friday. Certain branches may close at lunchtime, between 12.30 and 14:00.

Health Insurance: Make sure you have adequate travel insurance that can cover the cost of any medical treatment abroad and repatriation. European Health Insurance Cards (EHIC) can be used to cover some of the costs of treatment you receive until you return to the UK. Please be aware that the EHIC is not an alternative to travel insurance and will not cover any private medical costs or the cost of lost/stolen property.

Medical Assistance: If you need emergency or medical assistance during your trip, dial 112. If you are referred to a medical facility for treatment you should contact your insurance provider immediately. Please be aware that if you do not have an EHIC card or medical insurance, you may need to pay for any medical costs you incur.

To minimise the risk when moving around the city:

- Keep the number of valuables you carry on you at a minimum – especially in crowded areas
- Carry the contact number of your travel insurance provider at all times
- Refrain from anti-social behaviour in and around the city and stadium – you are more likely to get arrested than given a warning
- Where possible, avoid walking alone late at night or in poorly lit streets
- Consider the impact of wearing club/country colours when not inside the stadium

GETTING TO AND AROUND PARIS: FROM THE CHARLES DE GAULLE AIRPORT

BY TRAIN

One of the quickest and cheapest ways to travel into the centre of Paris is by the RER B (blue) train line that has station stops at both Terminal 2 and Terminal 3. Take the RER B train heading in the direction of Robinson, Antony or St-Rémy-lès-Chevreuse which will stop in central Paris stations such as Gare du Nord.

Tickets cost €10 (adult), €7 (Children 4-9) and travel is free for children under the age of 4. The journey takes up to 50 minutes.

BY BUS

The Roissybus runs from Charles de Gaulle Airport to the centre of Paris and leaves from all three terminals

Tickets cost €9.25 one-way and you can buy them on the bus with cash. The journey takes up to an hour and terminates in the Opéra area.

BY TAXI

A rough estimate on a fare from the airport to the city centre is around €50 (€60 during peak times). The journey time is around 40 minutes but can be much longer depending on the time of day.

GETTING TO AND AROUND PARIS: FROM ORLY AIRPORT

BY TRAIN

The RER C Line runs from the nearby station, Pont de Rungis-Aéroport d'Orly. Shuttle trains connect both airport terminals to Pont de Rungis-Aéroport d'Orly and run every 20 minutes. The fare is just €2.50 per person (free for children under 4).

From the Pont de Rungis-Aéroport d'Orly RER station, take the RER C (yellow) line towards Pontoise or Montigny Beauchamp. The RER C route into central Paris takes approximately 25 minutes and costs €3.90 one-way.

BY BUS

The Orlybus bus leaves from both terminals every 10-20 minutes and the journey time is around 30 minutes into the centre of Paris. Tickets cost €7.20 one-way.

Local bus route 183 also takes you into the city centre at a cheaper price of €1.90. The bus departs from the South Terminal every 30 minutes with a journey time of around 45 minutes.

You are able to buy your ticket on-board with cash for both of these buses.

BY TAXI

A rough estimate on a fare from the airport to the city centre is also around €50 (€60 during peak times). The journey time is around 40 minutes but can be much longer depending on the time of day.

GETTING AROUND PARIS

If you plan to use public transport a lot you may find that buying a visitor's pass, "Paris Visite", is the best and cheapest option. Paris Visite passes are available on a 1, 2, 3 or 5 day basis and cover all types of official public transport in the central area or central area and suburbs, depending on the option you choose.

Prices start from €12.85 for a 1 day adult pass for zones 1 to 3 (€6.40 for a child ages 4-11).

EUROSTAR

The Eurostar arrives at the Gare du Nord in the centre of Paris and offers connections with several of the cities transport services, including the RER.

If you plan on visiting a variety of tourist attractions it might be worth considering buying 'The Paris Pass'. This pass covers free admission to some 60 monuments and museums including the Louvre, Orsay museum for the Impressionists, Arc de Triomphe – but not the Eiffel Tower. It also includes free use of public transport (metro and buses). Prices start at €129 for a 2 day adult pass (concessions for juniors are available).

THE HISTORY

Last Meeting: England 2-0 France, 17th November 2015

Dele Alli and Wayne Rooney scored the goals that helped England beat France for the first time in 18 years, and end 2015 with a victory, but in reality the night was about more than just football.

What was meant to be a chance to prepare the two nations for next summer's European Championship was instead seen as a symbol of strength and unity following the horrific events in Paris four days earlier.

Alli's wonderful opener just before half-time and Rooney's volley just after settled the match from a sporting perspective, but it was as much about what happened before as during the game.

An emotional show of solidarity between England and France before kick-off around the stadium, and on the pitch, remembered those people who had been affected by Friday's atrocities.

Total meetings between the two teams: 30

First Meeting: 10th May 1923; France 1-4 England.

Games Won (England): 17

Games Lost (England): 5

Games Drawn: 5

Biggest Victory (England): 26th May 1927; France 0-6 England

Biggest Loss (England): 14th May 1931; France 5-2 England and 27th February 1963; France 5-2 England

STADE DE FRANCE

Home Team: France National Football Team

Stadium Address: 93216 Saint-Denis, France

Capacity: 78,000

Website: www.stadefrance.com

The Stade De France was built in response to France winning the bid to host the 1998 FIFA World Cup as, at the time, there was no stadium in the country that had a capacity larger than 45,000. Since the ground was built it has hosted events such as the 1998 FIFA World Cup Final, 2003 World Athletics Championship, 2007 Rugby World Cup, two Champions League finals in 2000 and 2006, 2010 Heineken Cup final and the UEFA Euro 2016 Final.

Getting to the Stadium

We have been advised by the French authorities that all English supporters should travel to the stadium via the following line and station:

Line - RER B Line (Blue)

Station - La Plaine Stade de France station (Zone 2)

Here you can view the Paris RER Map

Supporters are also advised that parking spaces near the ground are very limited on event days and are encouraged to use the public transport network.

STADIUM ACCESS

The stadium entrance for our supporters will be Gate B, the South East corner of the stadium. The turnstiles open at 19:00 and supporters are advised to arrive at least 60 minutes before kick-off due to security checks that will be in place for this match.

Please be aware that supporters may be refused entry if they are:

- Visibly drunk or under the influence of drugs
- Found to be carrying prohibited items
- Behaving in a way that could cause harm or distress to others

For security reasons only small bags will be allowed into the stadium. Flags are allowed into the ground and we advise members to arrive when turnstiles open if they wish to hang their flags inside the stadium. Flags larger than 2 meters by 1 meter will not be permitted as per the stadium regulations.

We are not expecting our supporters to be held back at the end of the match, but please listen to any stadium announcements.

WHEELCHAIR USERS

Wheelchair supporters will be located in Sector C5 and can access the stadium via Gate C.

MATCH TICKETS

Travel Club members are also advised to bring a form of photo ID with them when attending the match. As per all England away matches, tickets issued via The FA are non-transferable and cannot be used by any other supporter. Duplicate tickets will not be issued to members who lose their ticket or have it stolen so please take care of your match ticket at all times. Proof of travel documents will not be required for this match as it is obligatory for each member to collect their ticket in person.

TICKET COLLECTION POINTS

Please bring either your current 2016-2018 Travel Club membership card or any up-to-date photo identification to collect your ticket.

To save time please ensure you know the name of the lead Booker.

If you are part of a group, each member must collect their ticket in person. Please be aware that all members of the group do not have to collect at the same time, but it will not be possible for another member to collect your ticket on your behalf.

Travel Club members will be able to collect their tickets from the following locations during the stated opening hours (local time):
